Stephen Condon
Technical Specialist, Structured Finance Policy
Financial Services Authority

Stephen Condon joined the Financial Services Authority in February 2005 after nine years experience in the banking sector.

Stephen is currently responsible for the implementation and assessment of the new securitisation framework for all UK regulated firms. This involves assessing each securitisation business as part of Pillar 2.

Previously, Stephen was lead supervisor for the UK's largest banking group's corporate, investment banking and markets businesses. The role covered 56 countries operating from four key global hubs in North America, the United Kingdom, Europe and Asia.

Prior to the Financial Services Authority, Stephen worked for both UK and European banking groups where he held senior positions in capital markets, credit and market risk.
