

AUSTRALIAN SECURITISATION
CONFERENCE

| A | B | S | 2008 |

Craig Thomson
Chair of the House of Economics
Member for Dobell, NSW

Brought up in Bathurst, Craig moved to Sydney to go to University (UNSW). Craig has a both a commerce degree and a law degree.

Craig has represented health workers, ambulance officers and aged care workers since 1988 when he commenced working with the Health Services Union. He has held various positions with that union including Assistant Secretary of the NSW Branch and has since 2002 been the National Secretary of the union.

Craig was elected as Member for Dobell at the 2007 federal election. Craig is currently the Chairman of the House of Representatives Standing Committee on Economics