Tom Deutsch
Deputy Executive Director
American Securitization Forum (ASF)

Tom Deutsch is the Deputy Executive Director of the American Securitization Forum (ASF). Mr Deutsch works with the ASF's membership to implement the organization's securitization market advocacy and consensus initiatives as well as the organization's educational goals.

Mr Deutsch previously served as an Associate in the Capital Markets Department of Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP, where he represented issuers and underwriters in various structured finance offerings, including residential mortgage-backed securitizations and asset-backed securitizations. Prior to Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP, Mr Deutsch was an Associate at McKee Nelson LLP, where he focused on residential mortgage-backed securitizations. In addition, Mr Deutsch was an Annenberg Legal Fellow at the Federal Communications Commission and worked in the offices of U.S. Senators Bob Dole, Nancy Landon Kassebaum and Trent Lott in Washington D.C.

Mr Deutsch earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Pennsylvania, where he was also enrolled in the Wharton School's Ph.D. program in Public Policy and Management. Mr Deutsch has also earned a Master of Science from the London School of Economics and Political Science in addition to a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with Honors and a Bachelor of Arts magna cum laude from Washington University in St. Louis.
