

Arthur Grimes
Senior Fellow
Motu Economic and Public Policy Research, and Adjunct Professor of Economics
University of Waikato

Arthur Grimes is Senior Fellow at Motu Economic and Public Policy Research, and Adjunct Professor of Economics at University of Waikato. He is non-executive Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand, chairs the Hugo Group Strategy Panel and consults to a number of major organisations.

Previously, Dr Grimes has held roles as Director, Institute of Policy Studies, Chief Economist at both the Reserve Bank of New Zealand and the National Bank of New Zealand, and Chief Executive of Southpac Investment Management Limited. He has a PhD in Economics from the London School of Economics, and a BSocSc(Hons) from University of Waikato. He has published widely in a number of fields of economics. His current research focuses on: economic effects of infrastructure; the effects of homeownership on households and communities; and key determinants of New Zealand firm success.