

David Stone
Head of Industry Affairs
Vodafone

David is Head of Industry Affairs for Vodafone and is Vodafone's representative on the TCF Board. David has extensive industry experience having begun his telco career with CLEAR Communications in 1996 and has subsequently worked with a number of other industry members.

Prior to joining Vodafone four years ago, David was Manager, Strategic Development for United Networks Limited and was project director for the building of United Network's metro fibre networks.

David has a BSc in geology (and worked for a time as an exploration geologist) and LLB (Hons) and MComLaw(Hons) degrees.

