

David Tompkins
Group General Manager Asset Investment
Vector

BA Sc, M Eng, MIPENZ, Dip B Mgt, Dip Int Fin

David has extensive experience in asset development, partnership management and contracting, as well as business development. He joined Vector in January 2002 as General Manager Service Delivery after returning from Canada where he managed a number of North American power developments and from 2005 to 2008 was Divisional CEO Electricity. David is responsible for electricity and gas network development and investment, strategic asset planning, asset performance and engineering.