

Sally Davis
Chief Executive Officer
Franklin District Council

Sally Davis was appointed CEO of Franklin District Council in June 2007. Prior to this position she spent nine years as General Manager: Works and Services at Hamilton City Council. Sally has had a varied career including 16 years with the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries as a scientist and scientist manager. Sally was part of the team that established NIWA (National Institute of Water & Atmospheric Research) in New Zealand in 1992.

Outside of work, Sally enjoys hiking, fishing, reading, gardening and good food and wine. She is married with two adult children.