Bruce Potts
Vice President and Portfolio Manager
Alliance Capital Management

Bruce has had extensive portfolio management, investment and credit experience since joining the AXA Australia Group in 1981 in the investment arm of AXA's Building Society. Previously he had held an academic position at Monash University.

In 1986 he transferred to the main AXA investment area where he was the portfolio manager for the cash and bill portfolios as well as the structured investment component of AXA Australia's activities. From 1992 his portfolio management activities have focused on the credit and structured product end of the market including RMBS and other asset-backed investments, preference shares, infrastructure investments, corporate debt and hybrid investments both in the Investment Grade and Sub Investment Grade space.

Bruce has a Bachelor of Economics (Hons) and Master of Economics from Monash University and is a Fellow of the Society of Certified Practising Accountants.
