

Dr. Stephen J. Nash
Head of Fixed Income and Cash
State Street Global Advisors

Stephen is the Head of Fixed Income and Cash for State Street Global Advisors, Australia, Limited. He joined the firm in August 2000 to manage the fixed income and cash mandates for SSgA in Sydney. At SSgA, Stephen is responsible for the active and passive management of approximately AUD 17 billion in assets, where roughly a third is represented by domestic bonds, a third global bonds, and a third is cash. Stephen is actively involved in the direction, and creation, of fixed income related projects and has directed many fixed income related projects with other Ph.D. qualified researchers.

Prior to joining SSgA, Stephen worked with the United Nations, where he was responsible for managing a large US dollar-based pension fund for locally-based United Nations staff in the Middle East. As part of this role, Stephen selected, directed, and evaluated a range of external investment managers in various locations, with regard to both global bonds and global equities. Prior to joining the UN, Stephen worked at AMP Investments, where he was a Senior Portfolio Manager in fixed income. In addition, Stephen worked at Deutsche Funds Management for five years as a fixed income portfolio manager. Stephen's initial role was at the National Australia Bank in Melbourne, where he worked as a trader and broker in the fixed income group for three years.

Stephen has wide experience in the financial markets in a variety of senior roles, mainly focussing institutional investments. Dr. Nash is a qualified accountant and holds the following degrees from the University of Queensland: B.Comm., B.Econ. (Hns.), B.A., and a Masters degree in Economics (Hns.) from the University of Sydney. Recently, Dr. Nash completed the academic requirement for a Ph.D. at The University of Cambridge. Dr. Nash has published a book on economic theory in 1998 entitled; Cost Uncertainty and Welfare: Frank Knight's Theory of Imperfect Competition (Ashgate), and is a fellow of the Cambridge Commonwealth Society. In addition, Dr. Nash has published in several journals, such as The Journal of Economic Methodology, and The Review of Social Economy, as well as contributing chapters to books in economic theory.
