Heidi Richards
General Manager, Supervision Support,
Australian Prudential Regulation Authority

Heidi Richards is a General Manager in APRA's Supervision Support Division. She focuses primarily on banking industry policy and regulatory practice. She is responsible for technical rulings on prudential matters across industries regulated by APRA, including capital and securitisation, as well as analysis of banking industry conditions.

Previously Heidi worked at the Reserve Bank of Australia. She spent twelve years at the US Federal Reserve and Treasury in Washington, where she was involved in all aspects of prudential policy and regulation of banks, securities and payment systems.
