John Barry
Head of Securitisation Australasia nabCapital

John began a career in investment banking over 10 years ago, experiencing the formative years of the securitisation market in Australia. His experience includes structuring and arranging asset-backed security issues for a broad cross-section of collateral types including consumer receivables such as credit cards and auto loans, rural loans, CLOs, margin lending, insurance premium funding, trade debtors and residential and commercial mortgages - some of which were the first of their kind in the Australian market.
